MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy General Counsel
Office of General Counsel

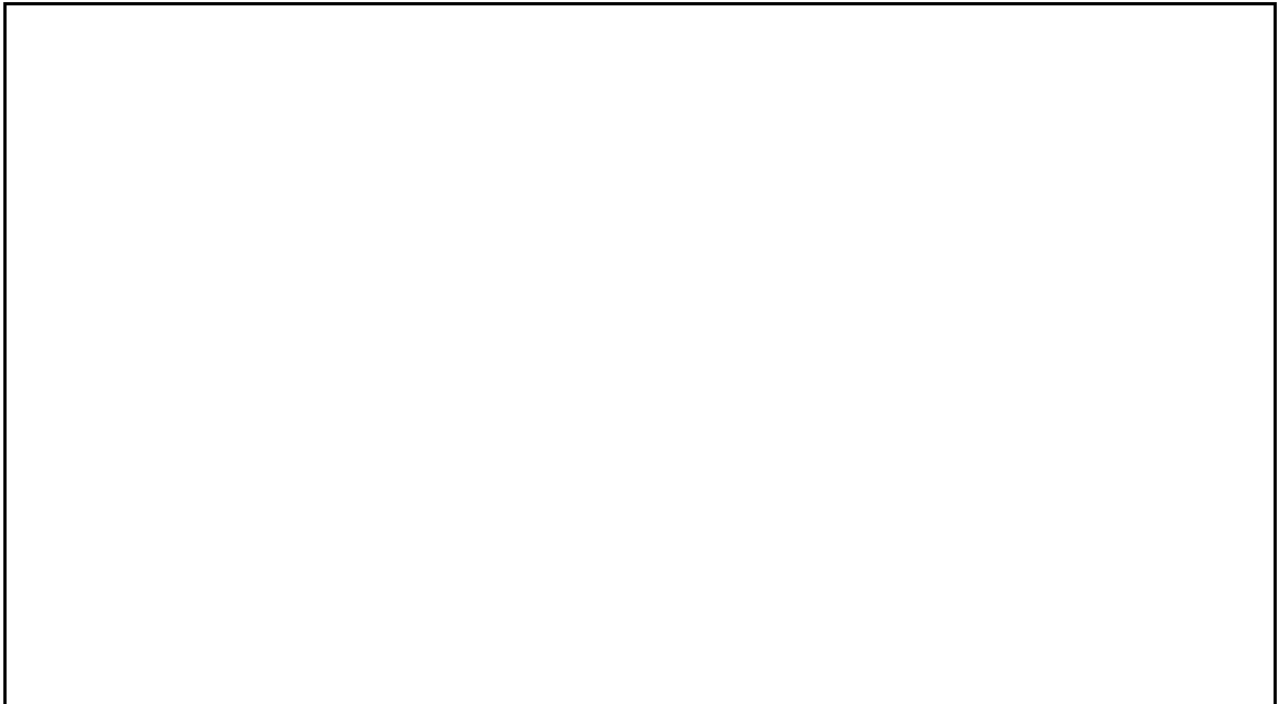

FROM: Thomas H. White
Director of Information Services, DDA

SUBJECT: Security Review of Text of Radio Program of 10 July 1981, Entitled "Nowhere to Run" (U)

REFERENCE: Memorandum for Deputy General Counsel from DIS;
24 August 1981; Same Subject (U)

1. A transcript of the radio program, "Nowhere to Run," has been reviewed by the Classification Review Division, OIS, to determine whether Phillip Agee disclosed any classified information during the program. Several items of information were noted that Mr. Agee most probably learned while employed at CIA and which remain classified under Sections 1-301(b) and (c) of E.O. 12065 (foreign government information and intelligence activities, sources, and methods). The specific items, bracketed in the transcript, are the following:

2. As an aside: It is interesting to note on the other hand, Mr. Agee's caution when speaking for the public record. When a caller asked for advice whether he should "work in the CIA covertly (sic), to gather information (about the CIA), perhaps to watch them or perhaps to countermand some of the things that they are doing," Agee's advice to him was "don't join and (instead) work against them from the outside." Another panelist, William Schapp, editor of the Covert Action Information Bulletin, stated that what was being proposed by the caller was a crime (see page 42 of the transcript). (U)
